being so
with us

Wed Nov 2
Another fine
day. Some peeps Hokin & I finished sowing the wheat
across the creek and began to dig potatoes.
Pat Crull sticks
out for home.
He will be glad to see the coming of us.

Charles Hartman
the thrasher man was here and I paid him ten dollars for thrashing.

Thurs Nov 3
A beautiful
day. His first the dug potatoes
planted them
Phil & Ed Cook
helped me pick up potatoes.
Frank Ruth
was up and settled up for the making of plans
I gave him my note for the paid
about the middle of January 1899

Sat Mon 4

A fine day
A light frost
The dung pile
Plowed the ground
Phillip Cook
worked on The house a part a 1/2
out of a patch which we wish to have had soon Ed & Baby

only 7 months

Sunday Nov 6
A little sail most night, and thunder
A nice day
to start the morning Cherry
E. H. & I got up early and drove out hunting the downy woodpecker Assured there a pair of them
back of road went Came back by the evening about 5 o'clock
Cherry all day and ready for rest

Monday Nov 7
A big frost
A fine day
I worked all day after the churning over and worked around
of eggs, I did and Chay, but can't find rabbit hunting Killed two of them Bunch Jay stayed in and seen
the hawk Olla needs to have a turkey
trip all right and the hawk
is doing well

Sues Bay. 8

A fine day
A small boat
I hauled poles
up to camp off the hill. It Rat I drove down to the falls
I came back
and worked
off the crib
The table has been after good and Ella has got along nicely

Wed. Bay. 5

A nice breeze
but I dined most all the after noon
Expended
hauling the car off the hill and got my load Expended with flour and junk and glass
to the well care observing my My has been out hunting
my new cattle

came over made us a call

Sat Nov 12
A very heavy and a heavy
like a blanket missing a part I cut in with The sun appeared up a little then rained again and the clouds were Ellie & the boys were playing the floor.

Sunday Nov 13
A warm cloudy day and Choosing the order of the old
I walked the walk Ellie took the baby and went down horse
and I took salt and salted
the pup
Hired the girl I examined the her feet and examined the
The car was down they only came for spent at the check again

Henry Har. 14

I started to sleep palatable little meat. The Camp Band
all of my in case of hand of load of
was off to sleep & getting in the part my choosing all got supply and the camp

June Har. 15

I heard that morning put a nice sleep
I picked a place for
and then in corn the off the
to the
a big a week to the evening

Wed Nov. 16

A nice day till in the evening then a rain set in but did not amount to much I purchased the Hops for 15¢ per bushel and hauled in 3 loads out of the bottom by Pat got help from Wade at his dock
and in the rain getting in with the last one.
Mr. Coriell & Henry
came over with 3 cows. Got out in the rain. Mr. J. J.
Chandler and three out.

out early with Hollman's light
by cattle

Sept Nov 18
A fine day
of potatoes
about 15
The crew
to be sitting a long while

Sept Nov 18
A rain & hail morning but did not amount to much Crew & I hauled in 14 loads noon. The men out before dark
and did not quit work until after dark
We dug potatoes
after dinner
I learned by word where Bill Lag was. I went up to Bill and got them and took them to the west side
I stayed alone with

Thurs Apr 24

A cool day Dinner had a night but during the day
Ella & I got ready and went over to his folks to spend an hour
He had a good time. She stayed
I came back
gentle day
with me Ben has just returned from
Linn Co
He has to the potatoes up to
we had a lot of mice

The coldest yet
as yet
The birds not go uphill place
have had a long time of it
The house just as good, taking Wagon today

Sat. Nov 26
A violent change in the weather
set in, the temperature to fall than the morning, then cold to cold, until it was real winter weather by night, but
during the day
and during the day
all day.
Capt. [unclear] down from [unclear] took half of the lamb
we butchered.
Gene went out to see [unclear] [unclear] A beautiful night
to be out.
The coldest yet.

Sun. Nov 27
A cold morning but moderate
until a nice
day.
I stayed at home
all day.
My [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] but I had back in the feeling of [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] and it seemed that the day would never end, until about 3 when Henry came down
with the [unclear]
the baby all [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] Betha & [unclear] [unclear] up a [unclear].

Monday Nov 25
A cold cloudy
day. I went a little shopping & got a bottle full from them. I had had and a pair of figured at a sharp angle.
Ella & Babbie
all right & all feet good. They were laughing at what I said.

7
Tuesday Nov 25
A damp foggy morning. I went to work and dressed a little showing up a bit. I went to
at the court
stable all day.
I went a long time but Ella is feeling back. Her head aches & she is feeling tired.
Babbie getting along very well.
Ella sold 5 to the ladies market for the amount of $1.85. I put it up.
