

May 1. 1892.

Sunday.

A beautiful day.
The lovely spring
time when love
abounds.

At home till after noon.

I hitched up and
drove down to Mrs.
Hammer and Ida
& I took a buggy
ride down to Mrs.
Blunt.

Spent Allie all
alone.

Had a nice time and
returned to church in the evening.

Took a evening drive with Mora.

Then came home.

Monday

A very warm day
but a breeze on

Gathering up our drums
we scouted them and
started for the Hill
The gathered together
there and marched

to them where we arrived about 10 AM. Then we found ranks and
marched to the graveyard
where we heard two

good speeches by
C. S. & J. L. afterwards
we marched through
the graveyard and

stewed the flour
got dinner at Mr.
Lemmons where we
had a nice under stayed till about 3 PM. before we

departed

Had a nice time
out in the orchard
playing and fooling
with the girls

Then we marched
down to the Hill
and had our
pictures taken
to commemorate the
day.

I arrived at
home about 7 PM.
tired and about
give out.

March 31.

Cuba

A very warm
day, but nice.
I worked out
the mussels and
was about as tired
as the day before.
Billie took his
ditching a little further back
by the house in
the hollow.
