Nov. 7 1892.

Tues.

Very smoky.
Rained a little.
We dug potatoes
all day.
Mr. Burkton was
here for dinner.
He came over to see about the
pay for the horse I bought
of him last
year.
Mr. Hall was
here this afternoon
and made up
his book work.

Nov 2
Wed

It has been raining
again about all
day and we spent the morning
hardly for
some time
we finished
digging the potatoes
I have done all
day.

The tops got
ready to go
to the spelling
against at the hall but
some people
threw some away.

Nov. 3.
Thurs.

Rained a little
He finished sorting
and binned our
potatoes.
Gene & I moved
the wheat out of
the crib.
Smith hauled corn off the
island to B.
Pa took a bag
of corn and 8 bu
of potatoes to
O. B. L.

Nov. 4.
Friday

Rained a little,
Smith hauled
corn off the mill
last.

Gene & I spent
the evening
cleaning out
the crib for
corn and
sorted & buried

Nov. 9.
Wed.

The first winter
day. Snowed
all forenoon
and rained thru
most of the afternoon.
He went over
to help saw
the barn. But the snow
prevented it
I cleaned stable
and helped feed
sweet potatoes
away.
Smith has put my his
time learning
telegraphy.
Behr has led.

Nov. 10.
Thurs.

A cold disagreeable
day. Snow sticking around.

Smith & Jones have
wood and pads.

I fixed a
stable for horse
carr and moved
the pig pen
for this.

Rebuilt the fireplace and
fixed stables
by appearance
of horse is
fine and camp
quite tolerable
