July 7 1898.

Bad day.
Rained all the
forenoon, but
went out
to work by 10
o'clock.

The rain stopped the water in the ditch. The water was up to the top of the ditch and
the water
was up to the top of the ditch.

Lewis was here
and eat dinner
He went to the office.

Busk.

A fine feast
but not too
busy to celebrate
the good potato
and corn a day
The busy hours
and no more
spare time
think about it
good habit
I talked about
the time we had a year
ago.

July 5.

Busk.

A fine day
at work in the corn and
cane.
Pa is not able to do any thing
but to ride a horse
and hardly able for that.
He hunted up
some more notes.

Friday

A warm day.
At work in the
hay harvest
about dawn.
Smith came home and was glad to get back.

He has been gone about a month. The longer
he stays away
away.

He has a lot to do.

July 29
Sat.

A very warm
day and a hot
night.
The furnished
up our hay
harvest.
The first time
I ever saw
it put up all
in the barn.
Pa and Smith
drove down to town. Got home
however. Chick
eggs and
hatched the baby
off. I had lost the one and found out
John had died.

July 30

Summit

A very hot day
At home all day
I looked after the horses. Changed
old Jimmy and his gang over in
the hollar where
old Japp's milk
was but Van & Bell came over a little while.

July 31

At home

Amel said began
this morning after
we had began
to haul in
oats he said
had to quit
and go to riding
with the work.
The said played
out and did not
eat much.
Another said came
up in the evening
and saw a snake
show.
Ben's report day
to Ruth and not his own.
John & I put up with the cow
