Music is often referred to as the universal language. It consists of a combination of harmonizing tones which result in a sound that is pleasing to the ear. The annual staff has composed this album which portrays very well "School Days" at Green High in 1956. To us this book records "Memories" that will grow "Sweeter as the Years Go By."

All the Things You Are

We, the Senior Class of 1956, dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Seeley, because you are one who has worked incessantly for our advancement and growth, both mentally and morally, and because you exemplify all the fine qualities of life in every phase.

These Maestros

Superintendent McCowen said in a statement to us, "The progress of all rural schools has been satisfactory and we are indeed proud of the splendid record of our schools. New School Legislation which goes into effect in 1956 should help us improve our systems in many ways. We must never be content with our progress, however, and our sights must be placed on the years to come from 1960 on through 1970 in order to meet the needs of our growing school population. The County Administration sends its congratulations to the GREEN TOWNSHIP High School, the entire Staff, Principal, and Board of Education, and especially to the student body for a job well done.

Mr. McCowen received his B.S. Degree from Ohio University, the Masters Degree from Northwestern University and has attended both Otterbein College and Harvard University.

We, the Senior Class, numbering thirty-nine, have as our sponsor Mr. William Jewell.

The highlight of our Junior year was our trip to Washington, D. C.

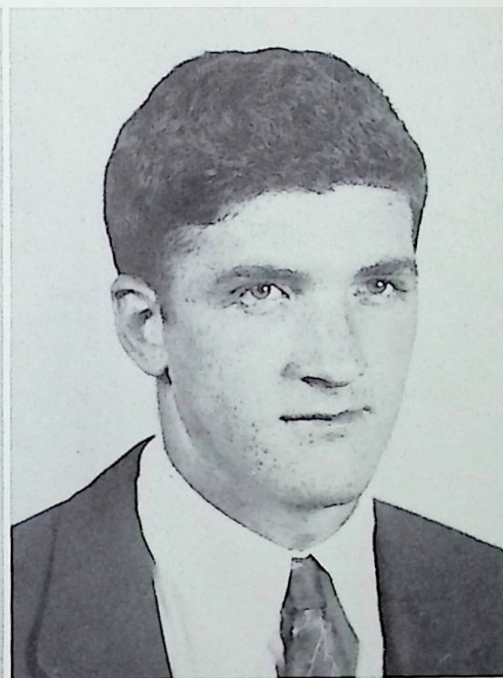

We were very pleased our Senior year that the Junior Class graciously honored us with a prom on April 28th.

We deeply regret our leaving our school which has left us with so many memories of endearment. Our moments of remembering our Alma Mater will always be with honor and respect.

High School Seniors 'Take Over' Library

The buzz of activity at Portsmouth Public Library this week was caused by a swarm of Green Township High School seniors taking part in a new experiment in school work. Shuffling through index cards, thumbing through reference books and penciling notes, the 37 students took over for the day to do research for term papers.

It was the first time that students, as a group, spent the day at the library doing research work, said Mrs. Janet Polacheck, librarian.

good start on term papers for a government class, and they put their knowledge of library facilities into practical use.

The experiment grew from the inadequacy of the Green High School library and from an idea of Mrs. Howard Kaps, English teacher.

Hoping to show the students the facilities that are available for them in a public library, Mrs. Kaps asked Mrs. Polacheck to give a lecture on the use of the library.

to use the library index, catalog cards and reference books. She gave them a brief history and study of the organization of a library.

After the discussion hour, the students browsed among the many books and then began gathering material for note taking. By afternoon their term papers were well under way.

Each of the 37 students is preparing a research paper for their social science class, taught by Walter Strehle, who accompanied the group. Their topics include just about everything from "The Importance of Proper Nutrition" to "The Land and People of China."
